

2020 CYPRESS LAWN LECTURE SCHEDULE

Lectures begin at 1 pm at the Cypress Lawn's Reception Center, 1370 El Camino Real, Colma

January 19 – 1848: Striking Gold – The Event that Changed California Forever, Author and San Francisco Chronicle Columnist, Carl Nolte

February 16 – Cable Car & Railway Service to San Francisco & Colma Cemeteries, Historian Don F. Holmgren

March 15 – History of the American Suffragist Movement & Famous Suffragists at Rest in Cypress Lawn, Historian Serene Williams & Professor Wendy Rouse

April 19 – Preview of Biopic Film – Gladys Hansen: The Lady Who Shook Up San Francisco History, Film Maker Nicholas Woodworth – PLUS: Great 1906 San Francisco Earthquake: Never Before Seen Pictures of the Disaster, Historian Richard Hansen

May 17 – End of the World, The End of the Century: San Francisco Land's End – More Excitement Than You Think, Author Woody LaBounty

June 21 – Willie, Niki & George – Emperors, Cousins, Enemies, Professor Michael Svanevik

July 19 – Splendor in the Glass – A walking lecture on the magnificent stained glass at Cypress Lawn, Docent Terry Hamburg

August 16 – Obscuring the Truth – When the President is Sick or Dying, Professor Michael Svanevik

September 20 – Fashion from 1900 to Today, Historian Sharon Rincol

October 18 – A History of the San Francisco's Pleasure Palace: The Sutro Baths, Author John Martini

November 15 – War in the Pacific, 1941 – The Long Simmering Fuse, Professor Michael Svanevik

Light refreshments served

All lectures are free to the public

Cypress Lawn Heritage Foundation is a not for profit organization corporation to provide historical education to the community and to raise funds to restore and preserve the non-endowed works of art that grace the outdoor museum and historical arboretum called Cypress Lawn Cemetery. Information: 650.550.8812